Rush Order Request

Rush Order Requests will only be considered and accepted on a case by case basis.

Production schedules are planned weeks and sometimes months in advance and will not be accepted if it does not interrupt or delay orders already in production.

Customers who diligently plan and submit their orders to work within our advertised delivery schedule expect to get their orders delivered on time.

All order details must be finalized before any Rush Order Request is considered for production.

Color Matching

COLOR MATCHING (For sublimation orders only) - Any orders requiring color matching must first provide production with a sample.

Note: Due to the deference in materials and color processing it may not be possible to achieve an exact color match requested by the customer.

Send all Color Matching Samples to the following address: CCM Custom Uniforms Inc.

Pre-Production Samples

PRE-PRODUCTION SAMPLES - Pre-Production Samples are intended to minimize the chance of orders being delivered incorrectly for appearance.

Pre-Production Samples are required for orders over 100 pieces and need to be requested for orders over 100 pieces.

Pre-production samples will only be started after artwork is complete and signed for.

Pre-production samples must be approved by the customer before main order production begins.

Order Approval Process

Our Order Approval Process is in place to make sure that all features and details of all orders are correct.
